Dear Harold:

The enclosure on R. F. K. is from Midnight, a trash filler.

The assassination, itself, is babbling.

At first Sirhan did appear to be the lone "shooter." Then the ensuing contradictions and destruction of evidence raised certain doubts. Logistics alone makes the Oswald theory dubious but the whole case remains mysterious and by implication sinister."

J. G. May "believe" in his innocence but this is quite consistent with his other "beliefs" and completely congruent with the schizoid pattern of thought endemic to his mental condition.

He may be a different J.G. today than when you knew him dependent on the rate of deterioration involved.

The memo sent by Turner Catledge to "Punch" Sulzberger[I] is indicative of The New York Times.

Punch:

"We have completed the editing of the C.I.A. series. Every point raised in connection with them by Mr. McCone has been carefully considered and in almost every case the piece has been revised or modified in line with his suggestions."

Best Wishes,

I The whole memo is reproduced in Catledge's Myths and The Times.
